INTERMEZZIO.

W. P. BURNET.

Moderato.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems. The key signature has two flats (B-flat major), and the time signature is 2/4. The tempo is marked 'Moderato.' The first system starts with a forte (f) dynamic and includes trills in the right hand. The second system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The third system also starts with a piano (p) dynamic. The fourth system features a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The fifth and sixth systems continue the melodic and harmonic development, ending with a final cadence in the sixth system.

4 TRIO.

The musical score consists of six systems of piano accompaniment, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The notation includes various musical markings:

- System 1: Starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking. The melody in the treble staff features eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment.
- System 2: Continues the melodic and harmonic development with similar rhythmic patterns.
- System 3: Includes a rit. (ritardando) marking over the first measure and an a tempo. marking over the fourth measure, indicating a change in tempo.
- System 4: Further melodic progression with consistent accompaniment.
- System 5: Features a rit. marking over the third measure and an a tempo. marking over the sixth measure.
- System 6: Concludes the page with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The treble staff includes trills (tr) over the first two measures.

RAGTIME OF THE FUTURE.

FROG LEGS RAG.

We are unhesitating and positive in saying that this is away and beyond the best of all 1906 copyrights. It combines the sentimental with the most glittering fire-works. It cannot be described. It must be heard. It touches all sides of American appreciation.

Don't let a day pass until you get "Frog Legs" Rag.

KINKLETS.

No one knows better than we know that a slick vaudeville bunch can project a piece of music onto the market with the force of a catapult, and we also know that three weeks later may find it in the garbage pail.

Such is not Kinklets. It reveals new thought with each repetition, and five years hence will smother the season's "hits" one by one as Maple Leaf now does.

KYRENE.

This is a fancy flight of a highly cultured musician into the realm of popular taste. He has hooked the rabble wagon however to a star and moved the procession toward a higher peg. It is to your credit if you like Kyrene. Get it.

AMERICA'S GIFT TO THE WORLD.

CHRYSANTHEMUM.

This piece, in its geneology, is beyond our ken. It is an inspiration of Joplin after reading Alice in Wonderland, and is a psychological phenomena. Particulars will be given on application to the Stark Music Co., St. Louis.

SYMPATHETIC JASPER.

Chicago here throws its line into the stream with a bait for popular approval. Jasper is sympathetic all right, and as might be expected from a Chicago union musician, is also intelligent and snappy.

These six pieces are selected from thousands, and are the cream of late creations. Every pianist should have every one of them to be up-to-date with the best.

COLE SMOAK.

The writer believes in very truth that Cole Smoak is a positive inspiration. Human language is not equal to the task of painting the interior thoughts of the soul. It is also certain that all souls do not slack their thirst from the same fountain.

"Cole Smoak" appeals to the writer in language unutterable. Would be pleased to hear from any who have heard the echo.
